ORA/NARI Code of Ethics

Each member of the ORA/NARI agrees to comply with each organization's bylaws and is pledged to observe high standards of honesty, integrity and responsibility in the conduct of business:

- By promoting in good faith only those products and services which are known to be functionally and economically sound and which are known to be consistent with objective standards of health and safety.
- By making all advertising and sales promotion factually accurate, avoiding those practices which tend to mislead or deceive the customer.
- By writing all contracts and warranties such that they comply with federal, state, and local laws.
- By promptly acknowledging and taking appropriate action on all customer complaints.
- By refraining from any act intended to restrain trade or suppress competition.
- By attaining and retaining insurance as required by federal, state, and local authorities.
- By attaining and retaining licensing and/or registration as required by federal, state, and local authorities.

Acknowledgement

I have reviewed the information contained in this membership application and confirm that this information is correct to the best of my knowledge and attest that I am in compliance with the ORA/NARI Code of Ethics printed herein. By signing this application, I confirm that I qualify for membership and agree to comply with the Bylaws and Code of Ethics of the Oregon Remodelers Association/NARI. I understand that violations of said acknowledgement during my membership may result in the termination of my membership rights, including, but not limited to the immediate removal of all ORA/NARI logos from business materials.
